FROZEN TO GROUND

Was Dead Body Found in Forest Near Bainbridge.

Woman Left House in Night Clothes, and Wandered in Woods Until Frozen.

The dead body of Mrs. Jake Cluck, of near Bainbridge, was found last Saturday morning in the woods about one and a half miles from her home.

Mrs. Cluck arose from her bed about 3 o'clock in the morning and left the house in her night clothes.
Members of the family heard her when she arose and walked out, but the supposition was that she had gone into another room for water and no particular attention was paid to the matter.

After daylight it was discovered that she was missing and her failure to return at the breakfast hour caused alarm, and a search was instituted by Mr. Cluck and some of his neighbors.

The woman was bareheaded and walking over the ice and sleet her feet were soon cut and commenced bleeding. The hunting party had not gone far until they found her bloody tracks and following them to the woods the search was continued. About 9 o'clock in the morning they came upon the corpse, lying on her side, with her face frozen to the ground.

No marks of violence were found on the body and it was evident that she had frozen to death, and had been there since her disappearance.

Mrs. Cluck was about 45 years old and had not enjoyed good health for a year or more. It is believed that continued ill health had affected her mind and that she was not rational when she wandered away to her death.

Messrs. J. M. Renshaw, J. D.
Russell and R. L. Boulware were appointed appraisers of the assigned estate of Mrs. Rebecca Hymen.

DEATH NEAR FRUIT HILL.

Much Esteemed Citizen Passes Away After Brief Illness.

Mr. Ben H. West, a highly respected citizen of the Fruit Hill country, and uncle of Councilman Jas. West, Dr. P. E. West and Mr.
Robt. West of this city, died Tuesday night, after a brief illness, of pneumonia. He was about 55 years old.

Mr. West leaves no family, his wife having preceded him to the grave a few years ago.

The interment took place in the family burying ground Wednesday.

FELL TWENTY FEET.

Henry Steele Landed at Bottom of Ice House.

Mr. Henry Steele, of the Gracey neighborhood, was the victim of a painful accident a few days ago.
While superintending the unloading of ice from a wagon he slipped and fell in the ice-house, a distance of twenty feet.

The shock rendered him unconscious for a time and his right leg was injured, a gash several inches in length being cut on the limb below the knee.

GRAND SERMONS.

Three of the Best of All Sermons.

Meetings Closed Last Night Much to the Regret of Everybody.

MONDAY NIGHT.

Notwithstanding the fact that several hundred people had remained in the Tabernacle from 9 o'clock in the morning to 4, in the afternoon, and of course were tan-gued, the lower part of the building was filled at the night service.
No doubt the snow falling at the time, which gave abundant promise of a heavy fall, kept many away who would have been in from the country. Dr. Pentecost has crossed the ocean something like three dozen times and has been all over Europe time and again—in fact, been almost everywhere—and we had heard nothing in saying that he has now where experienced as much bad weather in "one bunch" as he has since he reached Kentucky. But weather never stops him. If the people turn out to hear him they may always expect to find him on hand when he is physically able,
and often when he should remain indoors.

After reading the 130th Psalm, the doctor preached a most powerful and convincing sermon, dealing principally on the low estate to which man has fallen and the love of God which only can save him.
The most important doctrine of revelation is the doctrine of grace.
There is no other doctrine more important than this. Legal doctrines have nothing to do with the doctrine of redemption. By his fall man is heir to nothing—he lost all when he sinned against God. The parallel drawn between man as he was created and his condition when driven from the garden was masterful. We have not to deal with Adam, but ourselves.

When man was created he was the lord of creation, not as a tyrant or a cruel ruler, but the overlord of creation. All the things of creation were under him. He was made in God's own image. He communed and had fellowship with God. After Adam had fallen he tried to hide from his God. He did not seek the Lord as before, but he heard the "voice of the Lord God walking in the garden in the cool of the day," and he said to God, "I heard thy voice in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself." God was looking for him, seeking him out. Though man had sinned and lost standing with God, the Lord loved him. Adam was a moral coward, and we are moral cowards, moral outcasts.
Though God had to drive Adam from the garden he loved him so that even then he devised a plan for his redemption—he could not give him up in his lost and ruined condition. We hear a great deal about character and reputation, but character is not reputation.
Character is what a man is and his reputation is what other men think he is. But God forgives men and pardons them. Pardon is not forgiveness. It is a hard thing to forgive a man who has injured you—one of the hardest things in this world for man to do. It is easy for a man to lose his standing in the commercial world. We make little worlds for ourselves, and are very careful not to lose our standing—try to keep up our reputation, but what is reputation if there is no character behind it? Is the great moral universe man has lost his standing with God. Character in man is everything—he should think more of his character than his reputation. Henry Clay, the great Kentucky commoner, was right when he said "I had rather be right than President." He was thinking and talking about his character.
Man was the favorite of creation.
There was nothing too good for him, he had communion and complete fellowship with God; and even after he sinned God so loved him that,

before driving him out of the garden he revealed his divine purpose to him. But everything went down in sin, character and all. He lost his desire for righteousness, lost his will for righteousness. He says I don't care. In his sinful, miserable state he says "I have no desire, no will to recover myself from these things. If there were nothing else in this Bible portrait, sketched in bold lines, it should be sufficient to show the awful condition of fallen man. What is true of Adam is true of us all. Man is in a state of sin, is without standing, has lost communion with God, and without moral ability. With no standing with God, no desire for anything better, no communion with God, he is in a condition worse than a thousand hells in the other world. Suppose that God should throw open the gates of heaven and let him rush right in, what would the God of Heaven be? What would heaven be?
Think of a man rushing out of hell right into heaven! Heaven would be the last place you would want to go to. A man who was to go on an excursion boat to a political convention, by mistake got on a Sunday school excursion boat. It did not take him long to realize his mistake. Young people here and there reading the Bible and singing the "Sweet Bye and Bye" wonder what he wanted. He was almost crazed and rushed up to the captain and cried out: "Put me off this boat, I am in hell!"

What is forgiveness? Man never had anything to lose—God gave him everything he ever had. Forgiveness is not something he ever lost. The angels do not have to be forgiven. It is only man, the best loved, the most honored, the one that he loves best has to be forgiven.
Forgiveness for sin is secured only by the atoning blood of Christ.
You can't save yourself by your tears. It is not justification—all that believe are justified. Man's attitude before God made the cross.
It is the way back to God. Man without character and standing before God is like a star out of its orbit. He is put back in his orbit and into harmony with God. He is the first star in the mind of God. Man, when he lost everything else, did not lose the love of God. Man never looks for God, but God is always looking for him. Forgiveness wins Christ. If you receive divine forgiveness you must receive Christ.
When a man says, "I am afraid of God, and will run away from him, he must suffer the penalty. When you violate the laws of nature, nature exacts a penalty every time.
Law only knows a penalty for transgression. You have violated God's law, but he loves you, he is seeking you, and would have you come back to him. But you can only get back through the wide-open gate of heaven by confessing Christ.

TUESDAY NIGHT.

The subject of the discourse was

"The Fullness or Abundance of Divine Forgiveness." Dr. Pentecost read the 2nd chapter of Mark, verses 1 to 8 inclusive. When John Bunyan wrote his autobiography he entitled his volume, "Grace Abounding." This ought to be the title of every Christian. Inspired men were not given to using the infinitive to any great extent, and were sparing of adjectives, but when speaking of the abounding grace of God, they could not restrain themselves. Peter speaks of the "precious blood of Christ." He couldn't help it. When they wrote anything implying the greatness of redemption they had to use adjectives. When we read in Eph.
1:7, 8, "in whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace; wherein he both abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence," it ought to set our hearts singing. Oh, the abounding forgiveness of God! The utter-most of God's infinite resources.
Nothing else meets my case. I want enough to swim in. Enough for me to know that God wants me to know it. Salvation is a great thing. If God had been stingy with grace, it would have been enough. But when he has given so abundantly of grace, what black ingratitude to turn away from it. How abundant the righteousness is like the great God.
"Thy righteousness is like the great mountains; thy judgments are a great deep." (30th Psalm, 6.)

When we come to touch him on the point of forgiveness, his grace is poured out like a river of salvation.
But David with blood on his hands did not ask small things of God, though he spoiled the life of a woman and murdered her husband, he cries out in the 130th Psalm,
"Out of the depths have I cried unto thee, O Lord." Again in the 7th verse, "Let Israel hope in the Lord:
for with the Lord there is mercy, and with him is plenteous redemption." Read the 130th Psalm.
The first verse of the 5th Chapter Solomon's Song is God's invitation to dinner. What a table God spreads for sinners! Isaiah says
"let the wicked forsake his ways and the unrighteous man his thoughts, and I will abundantly pardon." Christ says in John 10:10
"I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly." Grace is bigger than sin. Where sin abounded, grace did much more abound.
(Rom. 5:20.) God has more grace in Christ than all the sins of the world can exhaust. Who can fathom the depth of God's grace? Who can measure the breadth, length and height of God's forgiveness?
Don't you see you can't buy it?
What have you to give for a thing like that? It must be a gift. All the way through the New Testament we find the amazing declaration that Christ came to give over-sins, but he does it so abundantly!
When God wanted his people to come up out of Egypt he turned

Conversation Recently Overheard on an English Railway Train.

"Yes," said the voluble one to the quiet-looking man on his right in a second-class carriage on a local line,
"I always like to talk with you, because I learn something. You have something to say. You don't all like a big and let other men do all the talking. You have ideas, and you express them well."

"I flatter myself," began the other,
but he was immediately interferred with.

"That's the way it is, you see; I can sit and hear you talk all day, while there are men I wouldn't listen to a minute."

"I was going to say—"

"I told my wife only last night that I could get more solid information by hearing you talk ten minutes than by listening to some men a week."

"May I remark—"

"There's that Smith. I hide myself behind my newspaper whenever I see him enter the same carriage. I don't want to talk the whole time, and there's nothing in what he says. I'm not much of a talker myself, but I do like to get a word in edgewise occasionally."

"If you will allow me—"

"I can't thank you for your management to pull up to me information on all kinds of subjects. I don't want to talk you, but you seem to have a knack of everything."

"If you would give me a name—"

"I should talk at daylong if I were as good as you at it. I'll confess out to you, Jones, why don't you talk but, bless you! I'm wise enough to keep my mouth shut when I am with men who know a great deal more than I do."

"That's just it, you see. One must have a good listener. Now, what I admire myself for more than anything else is, I'm a good listener. I can ride all the way from our station into town listening to you as I am doing now, and hardly open my mouth to say a word. Why? Because I know a good talker when I hear one."

"But you don't—"

"Oh, yes, I do. I understand everything you say on the subject, but, of course, I can't dress my ideas up in such language as you use. You are a natural talker. I am not. You open your mouth and words run out clear as a brook, and I can't help but listen.
Ah! here we are at the terminus. See you to-morrow morning."—London

A NOVEL EXPERIMENT.

Delicate Surgical Operation Performed by Means of a Magnet.

Some novel experiments are now being successfully tried in the hospital of the Berlin university, says the Cincinnati Gazette, the object being to test the efficacy of the electro-magnet as a curative agent in the case of persons in whose system some foreign objects have intruded themselves.
There are many industries in which the workmen are liable to be injured in this way, and there are few metal workers or smiths in Berlin from whose eyes pieces of metal or other objects have not at some time been removed.

Hitherto this has been a most painful operation. So in those cases in which the objects penetrated to a considerable distance within the eyes it did not always prove successful.

Now, however, the important discovery has been made that by the use of an electro-magnet a foreign object can be drawn out of the eye as skillfully as the most expert surgeon could perform such an operation. Moreover, the patient suffers comparatively little while the electro-magnet is doing its work, for the foreign object, unless it has gone far into the eye, is generally drawn out quickly and without leaving any serious wound. If it has penetrated far, a passage must be cut, through which it may be drawn out. Though this is a painful operation, it is not more painful than would be the subsequent work of the surgeon in extracting the object—a work which the electro-magnet now does, and in the doing causing hardly any pain.

The success of the physicians of the Berlin university is attracting considerable attention throughout Europe, and it is predicted by many that in a short time an electro-magnet will become an indispensable portion of every physician's and surgeon's paraphernalia.

ANNOUNCEMENT

We are authorized to announce
MR. W. H. C. BELL,
Of Christian County, as a candidate for Railroad Commissioner in the First Railroad District of Kentucky, subject to the action of the Democratic party, election Nov. 1902.

Prince Henry sails for the United States tomorrow.

George Wharton James, the famous author and scientist, was lately bitten by a snake with which he was experimenting, at Phoenix, Arizona, Tuesday.

Messrs. G. W. Greenup, of Paducah, and Sam H. Crossland, of Mayfield, have announced as candidates for Congress to succeed the Hon. Charles K. Wheeler.

Somebody, who wouldn't name had a thousand dollar piano unloaded and put in Admiral Schley parlor the other day. Near neighbors have not yet put in their complaint.

A Nicholasville, Ky., mob lynched a negro Friday, charged with assaulting Miss Della Powell. He was hanged to a tree in a decent and orderly way in the courthouse yard.

Congressman Allen made a notable speech in congress the other day in opposition to the Oleomargarine bill. He grew eloquent and his speech was one of the hits of the session.

If Kentucky lands that $75,000 that she almost has her hands on, will it reduce the rate of taxation? It ought to, but somehow there is always a hole in which to drop every dollar that the State can get hold of.

Louisville has lost out in the effort to get one of the four great army posts that are to be established. One of them goes to California, one to Ft. Riley, Kansas, one to Northern New York and the other to Chattanooga.

Editor E. M. Jenkins, of the Wingo, Ky., Outlook, is anxious to close out his business and sell his plant, valued at $500. This is a good chance for some one to pick up a good little country printing office cheap. Mr. Jenkins says Wingo will not support a paper.

If Louisville "shows off" as she wants to during Prince Henry's ten months stay there, she will either have to close the dial or turn back on the same spot as a sign of degradation from Louisville to something less than Louisville, while it is to be done, it is to be done in two halves.

Though there are crowded times for the same thing, the McKays of Louisville has been permitted to give a grand concert at the opera house, which has been a success. The McKays are a family of musical geniuses. They have been in the city for some time and have been a great success.

The contest between the Troupes and the McKays for the Lexington opera house, the contention resulting has been a jaded by an agreement to alternate acts, but performances to be given in full before the same audience.

WANT COMMISSIONERS

ERS REMOVED.

The Courier-Journal is authority for the statement that the Senate Committee on Charitable Institutions will not only recommend the confirmation of the lawless element representing the administration in the Western Asylum, but will recommend the removal of the honest commissioners, who have protected the interests of the State during the carnival of crime and immorality that has disgraced the institution.

No stream can be purer than its source, but there ought to be enough decent men in the Senate to prevent a sewerage of gambling and grafting from flowing through the insane asylums of the State. If the commissioners had consulted their own pleasure, if they had been less patriotic and less mindful of their oaths, they would long since have resigned in a body to escape the imputation that had been poured upon them. The statement alleged to have been made by Mr. H. D. Hines that the editor of this paper had notified Gov. Beckham that "he would use his influence with the commissioners to make war on him," has no foundation whatever on truth. Three of the commissioners, it is true, were suggested by Mr. Meacham, but the Governor never appointed them until they had been submitted to his benches here and approved by them. Mr. Meacham displayed no "hostility" towards the administration until it was a year old and had become a defender of the crime exposed in the Asylum. We have had no communication with the Governor, direct or indirect, since the removal of Dr. McCormick and the whitewash proceedings that followed that action. Any statement to the contrary is a malicious falsehood. In the meantime, it will be interesting to see how the Governor will go about removing the Board, who have been appointed and confirmed for stated terms and can only be removed lawfully by impeachment proceedings for cause.

Messrs Charles Knight and Jam's Breachit were given a hearing before the committee Wednesday. These gentlemen and Messrs. J. B. Walker, R. W. Ware and Mr. P. Shryver are the commissioners whose removal is sought by the Legislature.

At the last session of the Legislature, an act was passed to provide for the removal of the Board of Commissioners of the Western Asylum. The act provided that the Board should be composed of five members, one of whom should be a physician, and that the Governor should have the power to remove any member of the Board for cause.

The act also provided that the Board should be organized on the first day of January next, and that the Governor should have the power to appoint and remove any member of the Board for cause.

The act further provided that the Board should be composed of five members, one of whom should be a physician, and that the Governor should have the power to remove any member of the Board for cause.

"A DAY AND A NIGHT."

One of the Merriest Comedies to be Presented.

The latest of the Hoyt farces, "A Day and A Night," is one of the merriest of comedies, sparkling with wit and satire. The story of the play concerns Marie Hart, the son of Lyon Hart, who has been quite lanky in his younger days, and still delights to get out and make Rome howl. He is a son's religious tendencies tire the old man who desires the young man to see the world. The younger man goes to New York and tries to secure a position for the choir of the church, of which he is deacon. His father, aided by a theatrical manager, introduces him to a lot of chorus girls. The young man's sweetheart, a former actress, joins the company while he is present, and to hide her identity masquerades as a soubrette, and although the young man says she looks very much like his Ada, she denies it, but gives him practical lessons in how to make love to his sweetheart. He proves an apt pupil. In fact the fellow is a thoroughbred. The delight of his father. The situations are exceedingly funny, and many curious complications arise.

The comedy will be seen at Holland's Opera House, Wednesday night, February 19.

She Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

"I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a number of years and have no hesitancy in saying that it is the best remedy for coughs, colds and croup I have ever used in my family. I have not words to express my confidence in this remedy." Mrs. J. A. Moore, Fort St. Mich. For sale by all druggists.

SINKING FORK.

Sinking Fork, Ky., Feb. 11.—We are glad to see the sunshine, and note the change in the weather for the better.

Mr. V. T. Wright has been on the sick list for a week, but is some better now.

Sinking Fork is on a boom. Mr. Larkin Wood has a new buggy. Lookout girls, some one is going to get a ride.

Mr. Lynn Buie, after staying four years in the "Lone Star State," has decided Kentucky is good enough for him.

The many friends of Mr. Mack Schenore sympathize with him in the loss of his horse. Cheer up, Mack, you will soon make it back again, as you are in the poultry business.

Sinking Fork's new music teacher has been very successful in securing pupils. That red dress can be seen any time during the day going forth to instruct those under her care.

Mr. Pete Dillard, of Gracely, was calling on his mother Sunday afternoon. Wonder if there are no girls in Gracely?

February 25th will be celebrated at the Christian church, in a debate. Sing! In hymns, songs, and orations to be presented. Music will be one of the chief features of the evening.

Rev. Fred Whittenbaker filed his regular appointment at the Greek Church last Sunday.

Misses Hattie Wood and Addie Hiser spent Saturday and Sunday in their city.

A new life-giving food has been introduced in our neighborhood, "Rabbit Sausage." Who'll be the first to try it?

TEXAS LETTER.

Lubbuck Texas, Feb. 5, 1902.—Editor KENTUCKIAN:

I want to write a few lines to the good and honest people through the columns of the KENTUCKIAN. I'm living in Lubbuck county out on the great plains, where a man, when he goes home after his days work, doesn't have to bang his head on a nail, but simply has to only to lay it up by the side of the house, and the wind does the rest.

Well, the plains are as level as a floor and sandy as the sea shore. I have seen an oak forest since, I left Memphis, Tenn., but our train was a night train and we traveled about a hundred and fifty miles in the night, and of course could not see much of anything. I think Arkansas must have been named after a saw mill, for there is one about every mile or two along the railroad.

Nearly everybody on the train came from Memphis to Texarkana and were going to Texas or Oklahoma, and they were a jolly set. I haven't seen a black man since I left Colorado, Tex., and that has been seventeen days. We left Colorado city Sunday Jan. 19th, about noon and arrived at W. H. Vaughan's about noon Wednesday of the same week. On the way we saw a few canyons and mountains, which were very beautiful to a person who had never seen any before.

There was one peak rising up out of a canyon that was about 25 feet high and was almost perfectly round, and was about 60 feet across the top, and it looked like some boy had cut the top off with his papa's broad axe, it was so level on top. We arrived on the plains about 11:25 a. m. on Tuesday, January 21st, and haven't seen a hill since, except the one going in and out of the canyon at the little town of Lubbuck.

Lubbuck is a very nice little village. It has (7 or 8 stores, two land offices, one printing office, a court house, a church, a public school, a bank, and several nice residences, besides a large hotel. The people are all honest and upright and have plenty of money to pay the cash for what they buy. I have seen 25 or 30 antelope, and prairie dogs, but besides I have seen several wolves and jack rabbits. I shot one jack rabbit and it would have weighed about 30 lbs. Its ears were six inches long.

OVER ONE MILLION DOLLARS

THE PLANTERS' INS. CO., OF BOWLING GREEN, KY.

Has now in force over ONE MILLION DOLLARS of insurance on farm property.

We have written on an average over $350,000 of Insurance per year since the company was incorporated in 1898. We think this a good business, taking in consideration our territory being limited to ten Co's.

Our loss rate from organization has been on an average of 20 cents per $100 of Insurance per year. We have a large majority of the best farmers in Southwest Kentucky insured.

Ask either of the following agents for a list of the insured and any other information you may desire: S. G. BUCKNER, Agt., Hopkinsville, Ky. B. J. MURPHY, Agt., Pembroke, Ky. P. C. JONES, Sec'y.

DIVORSEC WANTED.

Three More Suits Filed With Circuit Court.

Stephen Kendrick wants a divorce from Minerva Kendrick and alleges abandonment. They were married in this county in 1883 and lived together fifteen years, says the petition.

H. B. Moseley sues for divorce from Sarah M. Moseley. Plaintiff alleges abandonment without cause and without fault on his part. They were married in Christian county in 1896 and lived together two years.

Henry Cox vs. Julia Cox is the style of another suit for divorce filed this week. They were married in Clarksville, Tenn., in 1888 and separated in 1899, says the petition. Plaintiff further states that defendant abandoned his house and refused to and has not since lived with him, and that during the time they lived together he always treated her in a kind and affectionate manner, providing comfortably for her support.

BETTER RECEIPTS

And Prices Good For Kinds Offered on Market.

The local tobacco market is showing considerable activity this week in all branches.

Cask receipts were 331 hogsheads for the week, and 960 for the year. Offerings were 15 hogsheads and there were only two rejections. The stock sold was low leaf and lugs and prices obtained were considered good for this class of the weed. Tobacco is getting in much better shape for handling and loose receipts are improving right along.

LAMB-PICKERING.

Caldwell County Couple Married Here by Judge Fowler.

Mr. William A. Lamb and Miss M. J. Pickering, a young couple from near Scottsburg, Caldwell county, arrived here over the I. C. Tuesday night and went directly to the Court House, where they were married at 10 o'clock by Judge Fowler.

Mr. and Mrs. Gansb left for their home Wednesday morning.

MR. SISK DEAD.

An Aged and Prominent Citizen Passes Away.

Mr. Francis Marion Sisk, father of Mr. Jap N. Sisk of this county, died at his home in White Plains, last Saturday night, aged 74 years. He was a prominent citizen and a man who enjoyed the esteem of a host of friends.

Second Anniversary.

The Hopkinsville Lodge of Elks will give an entertainment on the night of Feb. 22 in celebration of the second anniversary of the organization of the local lodge.

A committee on arrangements, composed of Mayor Henry and Messrs. T. O. Littlejohn, J. D. Russell and S. J. Samuel, has been appointed, and the occasion promises to be a most enjoyable one.

St Valentine's.

This is St Valentine's day and the postmaster has all the work he can do. The dealers in valentines have had large sales and the usual amount of money has been expended in this foolishness. How vainly it would be to give it a charitable purpose.

When you lack energy, do not rest your food, eat and sleep, after eating, all you need is at dose of Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets. They will make you feel like a new man and give you an appetite like a bear. For sale by all druggists.

A petition is being circulated among the business men of Elkton asking Dr. George F. Pentecost, the noted preacher, to come to this city at a time suitable to him and conduct a revival in our midst. We all have heard of his successful revivalist—Elkton Progress.

A Big Strike.

The manufacturers have made a strike for lower prices and F. C. Hollis at Pembroke has followed them up and cut prices accordingly from 25 to 50 per cent on all underlaid goods and furniture in proportion.

them. He said, "Come out of the low lands, a place of slavery, where you are oppressed and where you labor without pay. Come into a land flowing with milk and honey." God's eye is always upon us, day and night. Satan deceives you, he has a coil of rope around you to draw you down to destruction. As high as the heavens are above the earth so is the forgiveness of God to them that fear him. As far as the east is from the west so the Lord removes our sins from him. Do you know how far that is? You may start to find the east and you go on and on, and stop where you started. It is east and west still. I have sins but find forgiveness. God puts them away; he puts them behind him. There are places in the ocean whose depths man has never been able to fathom. God casts our sins into the sea. He can't see them. Sometimes we remember our sins, but God never does—he forgets them. Hezekiah became proud and haughty. God said to him, "Turn your face to the wall, Hezekiah, and die." "Must I die?" He who played with God can't stand an appeal for mercy. I say it reverently, he has to come down to it—it breaks him all up. I say it reverently, it is the language of the day. God says he will put our sins behind his back. That's the way God does it. He never looks at them again—he never sees them again. That's the abundance of forgiveness. I fancy our sins are between God's face and ours when we go to him, and he just takes them and puts them behind him. That's the way he forgives. The are gone henceforth and forever.

Here the preacher drew a word-picture of a storm he saw arise while he was on one of the peaks of the Alps several years ago. It was a lovely day. Not a cloud was to be seen, not a speck in the sky. Then small specks of vapor began to rise, then increased in number. Soon the sun had drawn up the irregular vaporous rings until they became clouds. Then the sky was shut out by great frowning clouds and the forked lightning began to play, then the sheet lightning, and the roar of thunder was heard. Then the rain fell and he was in the midst of an Alpine storm, something he had wanted to see for many years. Such a picture as he drew cannot be put on paper. It must be described by the words of the one who saw it. So vividly was it portrayed that one could almost see the lightning's flash and hear the roll of thunder. Out of all the many good things that Dr. Pentecost has said since he has been here—this picture was the most beautiful—we will not say that, either—but it was so different from anything else the preacher has given us. "Nothing could be prettier," he heard on all sides.

The Doctor compared man's progress in sin to the storm in the Alps. First one sin, a little sin, then another and another, growing larger and worse, and worse, until they rise up before God like a great black cloud. The darkness settles about and the thunder roll of death strikes and find by his infinite power he can blot the black clouds, and the darkness fades.

Dr. Pentecost spoke of the power of God to save every sinner, no matter how great. He told of a conversion he had with an infidel in which he made light of God's word, condemned in strongest terms the sinful acts of the illustrious biblic characters and pointed them out. The Doctor replied: "You haven't read Bunyon's 'Grace Abounding,' or you haven't gumption enough to understand it. You are telling me what their old nature was. Now tell me what sort of men they were after grace got hold of them. All men by nature are as sinful as they were. God's grace is equal for all. I say to you to night, you must take it or reject it."

The attendance was as large as at any night, excepting Sunday, during the meeting. Prof. Excell was in high good humor and the singing was delightful. Prof. Excell is "struck" on the choir. He said that he was proud of his male members, that it is "the best male choir of any meeting he has ever been to."

WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

There were about four thousand persons present, even the gallery being filled. For an hour and a half Dr. Pentecost held the immense audience spell-bound by his matchless presentation of the question of the free forgiveness of God toward man.

Prof. Excell sang with great effect, "I've Anchored My Soul in the Haven of Rest." This is one of the songs Prof. Excell sang when he was here three years ago and is a great favorite. The singing by the choir was magnificent.

The Doctor chose for his text the 38th verse of the 13th chapter of Acts. There is nothing more important for us than to have clear ideas of the Gospel of God. Man stands related to God in two great states or relations. Judicially and governmentally: as a boy to his father, who is the judge of the law. The declaration comes to us that we are justified. The words pardon and justification can be used interchangeably. But Christians have the sharp meaning of these words. Pardon relates to penalties. When a man is pardoned he is set free. Justification has to do with restoration as to a man's standing.

He is set to right morally and legally. There is no offense in the law against us. Pardon clears away all penalties. In the New Testament we are not under law but under grace. Justification does it. Justification is the outgrowth of forgiveness. The first thing that comes to us in the gospel is forgiveness of sins.

First, we will consider the scope of forgiveness. "Through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins. There are no terms or conditions in an open forgiveness. God holds no offense against any man. He forgave the world through Christ. "By the righteousness of one (Christ) the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life." (Rom. 5:18) God has put out of His heart our offenses, does not hold them against us.

This proclamation of forgiveness is unconditional. He freely forgives all of us, whether accepted or not. Free forgiveness is in His mind, though it may not be in yours—it is an unconditional proclamation. "Whether you accept or reject, it remains. "God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten son." Whether you accept the gift or not, the fact remains: "I've anchored my soul in the Haven of Rest." "You don't tell me that I'll try and love them. Tell them I do love them," says God. "I sent my son to save them. He has been raised from the dead and preached unto them."

"By grace are ye saved." There are no bargains in God's grace. It's a gift. The proclamation is unconditional. The doctrine of universalism is a perilous and dangerous doctrine to preach. But men won't take advantage of it, they won't accept Christ, the free gift. I give you a glass of water. The satisfying of your thirst depends on your drinking the water. I give it to you, whether you accept it or not. It is yours without asking, but you won't take it. It is in your hand. You won't take it. God holds no offense against any man. He forgives the world through Christ. "While we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." Forgiven in our sins—saved freely by grace.

That's the same of it. Men must have advantage of it. They don't want it, they spurn it. They don't want it. You have the gift in your hand, but you won't take it. This gift is complete without you accepting it. You are in prison. God opens wide the prison door and bids you go free. You fling him off and resist him. The gift of pardon is unconditional, the door is open, but you won't go out of your prison cell. You ask can a man be forgiven though he is lost? Yes. A man who is lost can be lost. All the damned in hell have been forgiven. They walked out of heaven into hell. Lost, in spite of the grace of God; lost in spite of the forgiveness of God. You are saved by the blood of Christ. Repentance nor baptism won't save you. Good works won't save you. God commanded us to love toward us, in that which we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." Rom. 5:8. God's forgiveness carries with the cheer of Jesus Christ, it carries justification, grace carries everything with it. "The gift of God is eternal life."

I am not trying to propagate a new theory. Zachariah, after unbelief, prophesied, "Blessed be the Lord God of Israel: for he hath visited and redeemed his people."

MR. SISK DEAD.

An Aged and Prominent Citizen Passes Away.

Mr. Francis Marion Sisk, father of Mr. Jap N. Sisk, of this county, died at his home in White Plains, said Saturday night, aged 74 years. He was a prominent citizen and a man who enjoyed the esteem of a host of friends.

Second Anniversary.

The Hopkinsville Lodge of Elks will give an entertainment on the night of Feb. 22 in celebration of the second anniversary of the organization of the lodge.

A committee on arrangements, composed of Mayor Henry and Messrs. T. H. Littlehales, J. E. Russell and S. J. Samuel, has been appointed, and the occasion promises to be a most enjoyable one.

St Valentine's.

This is St. Valentine's day, and the postmaster has all the work he can do. The dealers in valentines have had large sales and the usual amount of mail has been expended in this foolishness. How much better it would be to give it to charitable purposes.

When you lack energy, do not let your food, feel dull and stupid, after eating, all you need is at once of Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets. They will make you feel like a new man and give you an appetite like a bear. For sale by all druggists.

A petition is being circulated among the business men of Elkton asking Dr. George F. Pentecost, the noted preacher, to come to this city at a time suitable to him and conduct a revival in our midst. We all have heard of this successful revivalist—Elkton Progress.

A Big Strike.

them. He said, "One of the low lands, a place of slavery, where you are oppressed and where you labor without pay. Come into a land flowing with milk and honey." God's eye is always upon us, day and night. Satan deceives you, he has a coil of rope around you to draw you down to destruction. As high as the heavens are above the earth so is the forgiveness of God to them that fear him. As far as the east is from the west so the Lord removes our sins from him. Do you know how far that is? You may start to find the east and you go on and on, and stop where you started. It is east and west still. I have sinned but find forgiveness. God puts them away; he puts them behind him. There are places in the ocean whose depths man has never been able to fathom. God casts our sins into the sea. He can't see them. Sometimes we remember our sins, but God never does—he forgets them. Hezekiah became proud and haughty. God said to him, "Turn your face to the wall, Hezekiah, and die." "Must I die?" He asked him. "Must I die?" He asked him. "Must I die?" He asked him. "Must I die?" He asked him.

He is set to right morally and legally. There is no offense in the law against us. Pardon clears away all penalties. In the New Testament we are not under law but under grace. Justification does it. Justification is the outgrowth of forgiveness. The first thing that comes to us in the gospel is forgiveness of sins. First, we will consider the scope of forgiveness. "Through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins." There are no terms or conditions, it is an open proclamation. God holds no offense against any man. He forgives the world and through Christ. "By the righteousness of one (Christ) the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life." (Rom. 5:18) God has put out of His heart our offenses, does not hold them against us. This proclamation of forgiveness is unconditional—He freely forgives all of us, whether accepted or not. Free forgiveness is in His mind, though it may not be in yours—it is an unconditional proclamation. "Whether you accept or reject, it remains." God loves the world that He gave His only begotten son. Whether you accept the gift or not, the fact remains. There are no terms. "Do not tell men that I'll try and love them. Tell them I do love them," says God. "I sent My son to save them. He has been raised from the dead and preached unto them." "By grace are ye saved." There are no bargains in God's grace. It is a gift. The proclamation is universal salvation. The doctrine of universalism is a perilous and dangerous doctrine to preach. But men won't take advantage of it, they won't accept Christ, the free gift. I give you a glass of water. The satisfying of your thirst depends on your drinking the water. I give it to you, whether you accept it or not. It is yours without the asking, but you won't take it. So is forgiveness. You won't take it. God holds no offense against any man. He forgives the world and through Christ. "By the righteousness of one (Christ) the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life." (Rom. 5:18) God has put out of His heart our offenses, does not hold them against us. This proclamation of forgiveness is unconditional—He freely forgives all of us, whether accepted or not. Free forgiveness is in His mind, though it may not be in yours—it is an unconditional proclamation. "Whether you accept or reject, it remains." God loves the world that He gave His only begotten son. Whether you accept the gift or not, the fact remains. There are no terms. "Do not tell men that I'll try and love them. Tell them I do love them," says God. "I sent My son to save them. He has been raised from the dead and preached unto them." "By grace are ye saved." There are no bargains in God's grace. It is a gift. The proclamation is universal salvation. The doctrine of universalism is a perilous and dangerous doctrine to preach. But men won't take advantage of it, they won't accept Christ, the free gift. I give you a glass of water. The satisfying of your thirst depends on your drinking the water. I give it to you, whether you accept it or not. It is yours without the asking, but you won't take it. So is forgiveness. You won't take it. God holds no offense against any man. He forgives the world and through Christ. "By the righteousness of one (Christ) the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life." (Rom. 5:18) God has put out of His heart our offenses, does not hold them against us. This proclamation of forgiveness is unconditional—He freely forgives all of us, whether accepted or not. Twenty-three Years.

In view of the fact that the KENTUCKIAN has wound up its 23rd year of success, it is not out of place to say a word to its friends. The KENTUCKIAN has long since become a fixture of Hopkinsville.

All Newspaper Records in the City Have Been Broken by it.

No other paper ever published in Hopkinsville can point to a record of more than 20 years, with each year's business better than the one before. How many papers in that time have tried to run in Hopkinsville and fallen by the wayside? How many have failed to reach the goal?

An ocean cable 10,000 miles long would not serve the purpose for which it was designed if it fell short within twenty feet of the receiving-instrument.

It isn't the first end that counts. It's the last end. The start is nothing. Every contestant starts in a race, but how many finish? Almost any horse can begin in a race. With a few trials, even an old plug may get away from the wire all right, but it's the coming under the wire for the last time that counts, it's being in the race to the finish that is alone valuable.

A great many things in this world are made to begin well enough, but they fall short.

The KENTUCKIAN as an advertising medium has never fallen short. As a news medium, occupying a field of its own choosing, it has for 20 years stood squarely upon its merits and succeeded.

WHERE OTHERS FAILED.

Advertisers should bear this in mind. Money spent for Newspaper Advertising is an investment. It is not how much the advertising costs, but how large will be the returns. The mission of Newspaper Advertising is to sell goods. When the careful merchant has decided the important question as to the right medium, then, by attractive display advertising in that medium, he will inevitably increase sales. This result follows as surely as day follows night. The is the medium that pays, because it reaches the people. It has among its patrons advertisers who have been with it without a break for 12 to 15 years. It numbers the very best class of advertisers in their respective lines of business.

If you are not already a customer of ours, we want to make you one, and your advertising ONE OF OUR SPECIALTIES.

Newspaper advertising has become an indispensable adjunct to business. You need the advertising, we have the space to sell. Come do business with each other.

And to the reading public, remember we cover the entire news field twice a week for only $2 a year. At least one half of the news we give is in advance of other publications, because our facilities for gathering out-of-town news are equalled by none. If your time is out-renew promptly. If you have never taken the KENTUCKIAN, try it for 1902.

BREVITIES OF FUN.

"Got a chance?" "What is it, first water?" "If I only had a chance, I'd like to see you in a minute."—Philadelphia Record.

"First Water?" "He won't give you a thing for breaking him." Second Ditty: "That's all right; he'll be glad to pay me for leaving off."—Boston Transcript.

"Wouldn't it be dreadful?" "Wouldn't it be dreadful if the shooting star got to shooting one another by mistake?"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Miss Hammer—"No, I don't like her at all. She's forever talking about herself." Miss Sydig—"Oh, well, that's better than talking about some one else."—Philadelphia Press.

She—"What was his father, anyway; do you know?" He—"Yes; why?" "He told me his father was a skipper." "That's right. He was a bank cashier."—Philadelphia Record.

Leading Man—"Beasley has just turned up, full as a tick." Stage Manager—"And he's to go on in the first act in a drunk act. We'll have to get somebody to go on in his place."—Boston Transcript.

"Did you notice, Miss Sharp, that an idiot has been restored to his right mind by a clever surgeon?" "Yes, Mr. Fluttenby, I noticed the item, and was just going to call your attention to it."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

An Accommodating Chemist—"Chemist (to poor woman)—"You must take this medicine three times a day after meals." Patient—"But, sir, I seldom get meals these 'ard times." Chemist (passing on to next customer)—"Then take it before them."—The King.

DOG A WAR VETERAN.

San Juan, Bright Terrier, Has an Interesting History.

San Juan, a good-sized fox terrier belonging to Capt. S. Bayles and Mrs. Bayles, of Port Jefferson, L. I., formerly was the mascot of the Fifth United States volunteers (immunes) at San Juan. He was wounded twice and once saved by a Red Cross nurse.

"San Juan fell from the transport on which the Fifth regiment sailed from Guantanamo," said Capt. S. S. Bayles, who, with Mrs. Bayles, was on board the schooner Laguna at Pier 3, East river, the other night.

"He was badly hurt, but swam ashore. This was in April, 1899. The terrier passed several Spanish ships and, hearing Mrs. Bayles and me speaking English aboard the Laguna, lay down on the pier and cried."

"Mrs. Bayles found a bullet wound on his back. She washed out the wound and we brought San Juan to Philadelphia, intending to give him away. He begged for some ice cream, however, and ate it with a relish. I thought a dog that could appreciate ice cream was intelligent enough to keep."

"San Juan is now fat and happy. He greets everybody in the house before they are up in the morning if he can break into their rooms, and whenever Mrs. Bayles and I plan to go driving San Juan understands and begs to go along."

"He is white with brown spots, and has medium-sized ears. He was nine months old when he fell from the transport and I think he came originally from San Antonio."—N. Y. World.

MOROCCO IN DECAY.

A Great Political Upheaval Almost Sure to Come.

Morocco flares up feebly now and then as a subject of interest, demanding a paragraph or two in the newspapers. A Riff outrage, a rumored advance of France in the direction of Taflet (few people know where Taflet is), a photographic extravaganza of Abdul Aziz, or the abduction of a Spanish boy and girl by unshod mountainers take their place among "snippets" to be forgotten the next day. In truth, says the London Chronicle, Morocco is a terra incognita, which is supposed to be interpreted by ten days at the hybrid resort of Tangier, or a call at the coast ports in one of Forwood's comfortable steamers. A number of worthless books on the country, and a few which are admirable, have failed to interest and enlighten the general public, so that whenever the great upheaval comes, and the draying empire is brought into prominence by the European complication of which its destinies will be the occasion, little more will be known of the causes of its decay than if it were a province of Mars.

Edgewood's breeding is of the most fashionable strain, and contains crosses to all the blood that has produced the winners of the world. Such stallions are too few for the good of the trotting industry. Numbers of the best, were during the hard times just past, exported to foreign countries. Among the few left to fill the requirements Edgewood remains, though yet a young horse, has seven to his credit, with records from 2:24 to 2:10, which, in itself is proof sufficient as to his merit. His colts are all fine, large, good-looking individuals, good actors and trotters, and command the top prices when led in the sale ring. Gayety, 2:18 1/4, one of his handsome daughters, was sold to John Spill, of Cleveland, Ohio, last February for Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00). Eight youngsters by him were sold in John S. Lackey's sale in March last, by S. J. Fleming & Son, of Terre Haute, Ind., for prices that proved to them that there was still money in raising colts by the right kind of a horse.

Edgewood is the property of S. J. Fleming & Son, of Terre Haute, Ind., and ranks with such horses as Margrave, Axtell, and Jersey Wilks, which is proven by his list of colts with race records. His colts make fine roadsters and Matinee horses and are sought for that purpose as well as for race horses.

Edgewood, by Nutwood, (600) sire of 160 performers, including Lockheart, 208 1/4, Manager, 306 and 12 others in 2:10 list. He by Belmont. He by Abdallah, 15. He by Hambletonian, 10. Nutwood's dam, Miss Russell, dam of Maud S, 2:08 1/4, and six others. Her sons are sires of 223, and Edgewood's dam, Melrose, is the dam of Glenview Belle, 2:30 1/4, and Frances, (2 yr.) 2:28 1/4, made in 1901. His second dam, Moss Rose, dam of Nutwood, 2:22, and grand dam of 16, 2:30 dam, Primrose, the dam of 6, from 3:30 to 2:20, 4th dam, Black Rose, dam of 5 in the 2:30 list.

This grandly bred horse will make the season at J. J. Van Cleave's farm on the Clarksville pike. For further information, address

BOTH WERE DROWNED.

Sad Fate of Hopkins County Coon Hunters.

Madisonville, Ky., Feb. 12.—Mr. Frank Armstrong and son, Austin, while out coon hunting yesterday, started to cross the ice on Clear Creek, and as the boy was near the channel of the stream the ice broke and he fell into the water. He cried to his father for help, but before he could be reached the father likewise broke through, and both were drowned. At this writing only the son's body has been recovered. Large crowds are dragging the stream for the body of Mr. Armstrong.

Something That Will Do You Good

We know of no way in which we can be of more service to our readers than to tell them of something that will be of real good to them. For this reason we want to acquaint them with what we consider one of the very best remedies on the market for coughs, colds, and that alarming complaint, croup. We refer to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. We have used it with such good results in our family so long that it has become a household necessity. By its prompt use we haven't any doubt but that it has time and again prevented croup. The testimony is given up on our own experience, and we suggest that our readers, especially those who have small children, always keep it in their houses as a safeguard against croup.—Camden (S. C.) CONTRACT LET.

Old Land-Mark Being Removed for New Building.

The First National Bank let the contract for its new building a few days since. Forbes & Bro. received the award and put a force to work removing the old building last Wednesday. Gradually the old land-marks are disappearing and new ones taking their place.

The southwest corner of Main and Ninth streets, well known as Pelican's corner, has been standing for over sixty years. The erection of the new building will begin as soon as the weather will permit.

MRS. CLARA CAMP.

Wife of Thomas Camp, Dies Near Fairview.

Mrs. Clara Camp, wife of Mr. Thomas Camp, who lives about three miles from Fairview, died Tuesday, aged about twenty-five years. She was a Christian lady and leaves a large circle of friends. The interment took place in the family burying ground Wednesday.

Biliousness Cured.

H. Seever, a carpenter and builder of Kenton, Tenn., when suffering intensely from an attack of bilious colic, sent to a nearby drug store for something to relieve him. The druggist sent him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, three doses of which effected a permanent cure. This is the only remedy that can be depended upon in the most severe cases of colic and cholera morbus. Most druggists know this and recommend it when such a medicine is called for. For sale by all druggists.

Tennessee Business College

Was founded March 5, 1901, and has been in progress ever since and with the greatest results and encouragement. We have a large enrollment and have secured positions for every one of our graduates, without a single exception, and many of them are holding some of the most responsible positions, with salaries ranging from $35 to $125 a month. No better school anywhere.

We have four of the very best teachers of experience, who are graduates of the very best colleges in the South.

You can get no better, no more thorough courses anywhere. We are working for our reputation, hence it is to our advantage to thoroughly prepare our students and place them in good positions.

We are connected with three Employment Agencies in other cities and are having many more calls for book-keepers, stenographers every week than we can possibly supply. A you have to do is to take a thorough course with us, and the consequences will take care of themselves.

Our tuition is lower than anywhere else. We have a good boarding house to take all our students at $8 to $10 a month. This school is permanent.
